Responsibilities

- Assist with research, analysis, and data collection relevant to assigned projects.
- Support program and project management tasks.
- Draft reports, presentations, and other documents.
- Participate in professional development activities and workshops.
- Gain exposure to various ICE functions, such as investigations, enforcement, and intelligence analysis.

Qualifications

- Be a U.S. citizen.
- Current graduate student enrolled in an accredited program.
- Minimum GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) preferred.
- Demonstrated interest in public service and homeland security.
- Strong research, writing, and communication skills.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.

Experience

- Prior internship experience (in any field) is a plus.

Skills

- Analytical and problem-solving skills.
- Attention to detail and strong organizational skills.
- Ability to learn new concepts quickly and adapt to a fast-paced environment.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Initiative and willingness to take on new challenges.

Job Benefits

- Gain valuable experience working within a federal law enforcement agency.
- Network with professionals and gain insights into potential career paths at ICE.
- Enhance your resume and develop your professional skills.
- May be eligible for conversion to a full-time position upon graduation
