- Conduct research on health-related topics to support program development.
- Collaborate with departmental staff on data collection, analysis, and reporting.
- Participate in community outreach and education initiatives.
- Support administrative tasks related to health programs and services.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in a relevant degree program such as public health, healthcare administration, or a related field.
- Strong academic performance and a passion for public health.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Detail-oriented with strong organizational and time-management abilities.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a team environment.

Experience

- Previous coursework or experience in public health or a related field is advantageous but not mandatory.
- Familiarity with health data analysis tools or statistical software is a plus.

Skills

- Proficiency in Microsoft Office applications, including Excel, Word, and PowerPoint.
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills.
- Adaptability and a willingness to learn and contribute to a collaborative team environment.
- Effective communication and presentation skills.

Job Benefits

- Competitive stipend for the duration of the internship.
- Networking opportunities with professionals in the public health sector.
- Exposure to diverse projects and initiatives within the Virginia Department of Health.
- Professional development and mentorship opportunities.
