White House Summer Internship Program 2026

Description

WHIP interns contribute to the critical work of the White House Office (WHO) and the Office of the Vice President (OVP). You'll gain firsthand experience in policy development, communications, constituent affairs, and other vital areas.

Responsibilities

- Research and analyze policy issues
- Assist with drafting correspondence and reports
- Participate in meetings and briefings (depending on the internship)
- Support outreach and public engagement initiatives
- Contribute to ongoing White House projects and events

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate degree program at an accredited college or university.

Experience

Prior internship experience or relevant coursework is a plus, but not required

Skills

- Excellent research, writing, and analytical skills
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- A keen interest in government and public service

Job Benefits

- Competitive stipend to help offset living expenses
- Opportunity to gain practical experience in the heart of American politics
- Network with high-level government officials and professionals
- Develop valuable skills that will enhance your resume and future career prospects

How To Apply

The application period for the White House Summer Internship Program typically opens in late fall or early winter. Stay tuned to the White House website (<https://www.whitehouse.gov/get-involved/internships/>) for announcements regarding the following year's program, application deadlines, and instructions.
